VOLUME 35.

YOU ALL

MAYN MEAND OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS.

different from in the in the Tonics.

ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD

and all Diseases arising from a Disor-

Nervous Debility,

Biseases of the Kidneys.

ion, Flatulence, Inward Piles, s of Blood to the Head, Acidity s Stomach, Mausea, Heart-Disgust for Fosed, Fulness Weight in the Stomach, our Errotations Stime, or Weight in the Stomach.

Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering
the Heart, focating
in a Lywebs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Tellowness

Hoofland's German Bitters

Hoofland's German Tonic

DEBILITY.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the fitters of Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medi-cines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three mouths old, the most delicate female, or a man

FROM RON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

THOM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

CAUTION.

Mosfand's German Remedies are counterfeited. The gameine have the signature of C. M. Inchings, on the front of the outside verapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterful.

Resolict that it is Br. Hoofand's Corman Benedic that are so universally used and so highly resonant and so highly resonant allow the Bruggist be induce you is take may say is just as makes a large transfer and because A so, it. These Benedicts and These Benedicts are the transfer and the transfer and the transfer and the transfer and the transfer are the transfer and the transfer and the transfer are the transfer and the transfer are transfer and the transfer are transfer as the transfer are transfer as

AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

Do not furget to examine well the article you buy, in order to get the genuine.

No. 681 ARCH STREET, Philadelph

Formerly C. M. JACESON & CO.

are everywhere

The tonis is put up in quart bottles.

Towns truly.

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

J. H. KENNAED.

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvan Paraputents, March 16, 186 of ninety.

These Remedies are the best rely vegetable, and contains no. It is a compound of Fluid ExThe Hoots, Herbs, and Harks which these cirracts are made athered in Germany. c medicarracted from them by chemist. These

JAUNDICE,

Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA,

dered Liver, Stomach, or

DRUGGISTS. C. J. GRIGER, DRUGGIST, RAST TUSCARAW R. G. WILLIAMS & CO., DRUGGISTS AND R. Pharmaceutists and General Dealers in Drugs - Paints, Otis, Patent Medicines, Dye Staffs, &c. Fuset door Westof Post office, Main street, Alliance, Ohio. Est Prescriptions propared at all hoursday or night.

TAILORING.

A SECHANT TAILOR-ARSALOM KITT, AND

STARK COUNTY DEMOCRAT—A. McGrego BUOKINDING.

HIRAM THURSTON, BOOK-BINDER AND Blank Book Manusacturer. All orders from abroad promptly sitended to. Bindery in Harter's Block jup stairal, Canton, Ohio.

UNDERTAKING. DRINGE & HAAS, UNDERTAKERS, ME

taise, and all kinds of Coffins always on hand Two Rearess always in readiness. East end Tuscarawas street Canton, O. PHOTOGRAPHER. EDWIN SMITH, PHOTOGRAPHER, &c., PAR-licular attention given to copying and en-larging pictures. Oval Prance and Albams con-stancy on hand. Rooms in Matthews' Block, kird floor—south Market Square, Canbon, O. junio 661

PHYSICIANS. DR. J. MORRELL COOPER-PHYSICIAN AND Buzgom, Canton, Ohio. Office at present with A. J. Donds, Dential, Booth Market street Residence, St. Cloud Hotel. Country calls promptly attended to duwing day or night. July29m3*

DENTISTS.

J. H. SIDDALL-DENTIST. OFFICE IN e . Harter's Bank Block, Canton, Ohio. All operatios in Mechanical Desitistry performed in the tuest and most improved manuer. He would carepedial attention to his Gold Filling, in which, is che morde of "A. Ward," he is equalled by few and excelled by none.

URGEON DENTIST -A. J. DOUDS, OFFICE up stairs above Deuhel's I-welry Store, Canton BANKERS.

C BORGE D. HARTER & BROTHER, BANK-T RRS, South Masket Street, Canton, Ohio. Re-salve Deposits, Loan Money, Buy Gold, Silver, Bonds and Compound Interest Notes. Exchange ATTORNEYS

W. McKINLEY, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Canton, Ohio. Office in Trump's Building, second storr.

CHARPER & LYNCH, ATTORNEYS, HAVE formed a co-partnership in the Practice of Law. GRORGE E. BALDWIN, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

W. Mocord, Attorney At LAW and a General Collection Agent, Alliance, O. All bissess entrusted to his care will receive grompt tention. Office in Commercial Block—upwairs.

GEORGE W. RAFF, ATTORNEY AT LAW

OSEPH CREVOISIE, JR., JUSTCE OF THE Peace and Netary Public. Office-North-East rner, Public square, Canton, Ohio, will attend to drawing deeds, mortgages, sowers of attorney, an. Is addition to the English, he also speaks the German and French languages. He will also pro-oure passports for persons wishing to go to Eu-

JOSEPH A. MEYER, DEALER IN WATCHES, Clocks, Jowe ry and Pancy Articles, northwest O Clocks, Jewe ry and Fancy Articles, owner of Market Hquare, Cantun, C. a ing o Watches, Clocks and Jovelry and EXCHANGE HOTEL, JOHN FIRLDING, PRO-prictors, at the Depot, Canton, Ohio. F. J.

DANIEL SOURBECK-ALLIANCE HOUSE-at the Station, Alliance, O. Meals always to readiness on the arrival of the Cars

JACKSON HOTEL, LOUIS OHLIGHER, PRO-prietor, North Market-St. Canton, Ohio. MISCELLANEOUS.

PHALESTATE.—W. C. THOMPSON, DEALER to Meal Estate. Houses and Suffiting Lots for ale ness the New Depot and Machine Shops.— fice at the American Hotel. apr8 '6tt.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S OFFICE in ine Wikidal Building, north of the old Da Jackson Dana Sila. In recommendations of requested to summent my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but reparding the practice as out of my depreoprints sphere. I have in all eases declined; but with a clear proof in various indianose, and particularly in my sum family, of the usefulness of Dr. Heafouil's Genme Bitters: I depart for ones from my tunus course, is aspected my full constition that for general debaitty of the system and esqueinly for Liver Complaint, it is an agree one of the system and ease and ralumble some obsect it may ert House, Canton, Ohio, where he can be found when in the city; if not, any business wanted can be left with Jacob Kep-linger, Esq., County Recorder, who will give due notice to the undersigned.

The law authorizes the County Surveyor to take the acknowledgment of any instrument of writing; he will therefore write and acknowledge Agreements, J. G. WILLIARD

OLD ESTABLISHED HOSPI-QUICK CURES and LOW PRICES.

Twenty Thousand Cured Annually

Dr. Teller continues to be confidentially and suc-safully consulted on all forms of private diseases, his old established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver street, pessfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old established Hospital, No. 8 Beaver street, Albany. New York.

Twenty years devoted to this particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cores such as no other physician tane and his facilities are such [being in correspondence with the most eminent physician].

ciber obysician can and his facilities are such [being in correspondence with the most eminent physicians of the Old World) for obtaining the safest as well as the larges remedies for the diseases, that he can for industries to the unfortunates, of a rapid curs to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Sydnilla, Gonorchae, Stricture, Enlargement of the Tables, and Spormatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nese, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Emploces, Biles, Ulcere, Abcass, and all other impurities of the system.

YOUNG Man

addicted to scoret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the sigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of Married Life, are not first that in consulting Dr. T. they will find a friend to console, and a physician who has surged thousands.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK

married and the married happy. A lecture on Love or how to choose a partner—a complete work on mid wifery. It contains hundreds of secrets never before published 35 cents endosed will secure a copy by return mail:

TO. THE LADIES.

Dr. Teller still retains in America the agency for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female mouthly Pills, for stoppages, irregularities and other observations in females.

On receipt of one dollar, the price ber box, these pills will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world sective from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 3 am to 3 nm. and on Sunday. surs from 8 a m to 8 p m. and on Sunday, 15.5 p m.

N. B. Pursons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing Dr. Teller, enclosing a residence, by addressing Dr. Teller, enclosing a residence, and additionable curely packed from observation sont to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice. No students or boys employed.

o students of all letters to all letters to ... TEMA. HR. M. D. ... Bearer st., Abrahy N. F.

duoting T dend and our side

Stark Countr Democrat.

CANTON, STARK COUNTY, OHIO, NOVEMBER 18, 1868.

County Democrat.

NUMBER 22

The Democrat.

WEDNESDAY::::NOVEMBER 18,

A. McGREGOR, EDITOR.

The Bondholder's Victims! Read the following extract from a Purilished in Chicago: "One of the saddest places to visit, is the ployment room of the Young Men's cristian Association of this city, and see Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia Their introduction into this country from Germany uently out of heart. There are many that o not know where to obtain the food, clothals power to fit up some of the old buildings hat he has grown out of, lay off a little garn patch, and, giving reasonable wages,reeive in return the grateful thanks and laescape beggary and achieve independence. Those who will afford such a chance may address, with particulars, this department of Democracy, was to diffuse general competence among all, instead of conferring imis reversed by the rule of the Republican party. Fortunes have been suddenly accu-Lamp! Here in neighboring counties, rewith a fortune of Twelve Millions, accumurobbery and general lawlessness incident to Republican rule! As the raw become rich, the MANY grow poor. The hovel always stands near the palace; and wherever the ostentation of aristocracy is witnessed, the the exception of a somewhat obscure destitution of squalid poverty is hard by .- phraseology which, however, arises, In this country in particular, we feel Here in Chicago are "many, not only young to a great extent, from the necessity proud of the noble men who were men, but men of families," sober, industri- of giving new names to new things, ous, and qualified, "out of work and out of (the same thing that causes Kant's heart, who do not know where to obtain works to appear obscure), is neverthe- our standard-bearers were white men winter!" Victims of the flends Corp and Great, because of its matter; touching, men, but of ability such as should HUNGER! Freezing and starving, that because it is a history of years of pa-Jay Cooke, John Sherman, and the like of tient study and devotion to an idea. support of an inen who have the in-manufacture of these fitters. There is no also holic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable. the dreams of avarice;" but it is these poor any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being extensifie perparations of medicinal animate, while the others are more desoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies our effered to the public. Its laste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take th, while the life-giving, exhitarating, and medicinal qualities have occused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics. sustain negro bureaus and standing armies, and defray the expenses of the most profilgate and corrupt Government on earth. It is Tariffs, and other forms of taxation, > ter" of these poor people so dear that life is a struggle, and sore privation is endured, even where Cold and Hunger do not make them their victims! And yet how splendid and how delusive ill over the Northern States, are the extern-

The rich man's joys increase, the poor's decay !

Proud swells the tide with loads of freight ed ore, Hoards e'en beyond the miser's wish abound

name

His seat, where solitary sports are seen For all the luxuries the world supplies;

What Tyrants Mean when they say

'Let us have Peace."

Price of the Bitters, $1 00 per bettle; Or, a half dozen for $5 00. Price of the Tenie, $1 50 per bettle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

people terribly.

A LATE philosopher says that if anything will make a woman swear, it is looking for her night-cap after the lamp's blown out.

congress and feels good.

onward, as life increased. Vast vege- CHANT OF THE WHITE BONDMAN. THE VITAL PRINCIPLE. table forms, mighty ferns tossing their giant arms in the gale, appeared caused so much discussion in the scientific circles of Europe, and which mimic world. an organ—a leading religious journal, pubbearings on the phenomena of pro- from a ceiling. How closely the number of not only young men, but duction in the ordinary course of na-men of families, out of work, and conse-ture, for Dr. Meissner's startling as sertion that he has, during the pro- in the death agony, he relinque ng and shelter the coming winter, that shall gress of his researches, succeeded in the glass, and would look no longer. keep themselves and their family from star- inanimate bodies, has been denied by As it was growing too dark for furvation and death. We rejoice to see that no competent authority conversant the Association is making a right move in with the facts in the case. It is some- been frequently repeated, with the the manner of befriending them. It appeals to the farmer who, comfortable in the midst what singular that Mr. Crosse's probroad acres, well covered with that duction of the insect known to entowhich strips winter of all its terrors, has in mologists as the acarus Crossii by stance, as his inving obtained the his power to fit up some of the old buildings bors of those who ask only for a chance to more diligently than it has hitherto a black, stinking, pitchy mass, con The policy of this Government, in its origin, and while it was administered by the given to the world), may, in part, ac that heat, will, thought, life, are but is well known that Sir H. Davy tho't substance capable of producing an in mense fortunes upon the few. This policy that the principle of life was a gas, it has long ago been settled by thos and it is now equally well known that the late lamented Professor Faraday, mulated which make the most fabulous sto- Davy's friend and pupil, was, for sevries credible; and imbue with something eral years before his death, in correslike probability the tale of Aladin and his pondence with Dr. Meissner, of Berlin, in regard to this subject, and had, side John Sherman and Jay Cooke, each as now appears, no small share in the honor of the discovery which has been lated within the last seven years of murder, generally claimed for Dr. Meissner.

Dr. Meissner's Theory.

The Memoir, in which Dr. Meissner presented his views, and gave an acthem, may have more than they know how In early life Dr. Meissner, as he says whose feelings are not warped the metaphysics," and yet we can not wealth which belongs to all, been stolen the germ of his recent investigations. Crandall is beaten, that clerical rage which has unrelentdrawn to enable it to assume its activ-

the floor, so that it could readily be observed by the members of the Aced to call attention to it, removed a

Dr. Meissner, when he wish reproduce from the earliest ingly been showered on his devoted which make "the food, clothing and shelhas been shown that heat is but a further illustrated by showing that all arade and ostentation 1 But the time has animals, nay, even that God himself his position by fraud and at the sacriis the great anima mundi, but not

'Ye friends to Truth, ye statesmen, who in the laboratory. Motion, it will be Tis yours to judge how wide the limits Setween a RHLENDID and a HAPPY land!

the manifestation of its presence. Sir H. Davy, it will be remembered, gas, and, by means of powerful apparatus, compressed it into a solid form,

Yet count our gains; this wealth is but a That leaves our useful products still the pace for his lake, his park's extended bounds.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Purtabulanta, April 38, 1886.

** Hooftand's I consider "Hoofand's ferman flit ters" a saluski of attacks of Indigestion of Dyspepsis. I can e-riffy this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON. pace for his horses, equipage and hounds The robe that wraps his limbs in silken Has robbed the neighboring fields of half their growth;

idignant spurns the cottage from the green Around the world each needful product flies While thus the land adorned for pleasure

n barren splendor feebly waits the fall!"

ersation turned, the other day, on the ques- globe to hang quietly from the ceiling and that there is nothing to justify the sus- times of the universe, the various war, rejoined: "My dear sir, on the day tion pervaded the mass. A sudden before war was declared against Austria, I This lady read to me a letter she had received the day before from her Imperial nephew chase some Austrian stocks for me. The was observed at differenu points on the coast about that date, at Wellington. The treme low-water level, and then came in with such a rush that it tore all the shipping away from the wharfs and caused tremenduous confusion and considerable damage. These demonstrations were followed by sharp earthquake shocks, which, however did but litte damage, beyond frightening the rent the earth's crust and hurried millions of animated beings to death. Dr. Meissner's discovery of the Time passed and men appeared, dig principle of life, which has lately ging roots and ranging the forest Cities arose, and history-the story of human woe-was repeated on this has given rise to so many curious The countless hordes of India and the speculations among savans, must be East raged and tore each other in considered as undoubtedly the greatest discovery of modern times. We mimic fight. The whole course of history was re-enacted. Even Berlin and its academy appeared, and was mean, of course, not merely in its seen gaping at a glass globe suspended ture, for Dr. Meissner's startling as- saw himself in a moment strugglin journed, but the experiment has since means of electrical currents of ex- precipitates, as amor patriae in the tremely low tension, should not have form of a powder closely resembling been followed up by scientific men gold. amor virginis as a white powder, been followed up, but the general out- taminating all who touch it-it is not cry which met the "Vestiges of Crea | necessary to speak at length. It is tion" (in which the explicit account easy to see that an entire revolution of Mr. Crosse's experiments was first take place, the basis of which will be count for this apparent apathy. It modes of m7tion, That motion is pression on our senses is evident, for

Uncouth monsters crept over the land and swam in the seas. Convulsion

(From the Sedalia (Missouri) Press.] "We Had Rather be a Dead Lion than a Living Dog.

ideas that we can have no knowledg of wust does not appeal to and come through our senses, and we do know of motion, and it is also settled by Dr

Meissner's experiment.

We never could so fully adopt the sentiment of the above proverb, as count of his experiments before the we can to-day. This old, trite saying Berlin Academy of Sciences is, with is forcibly brought to our mind, when we reflect upon the political contest hrough which we have just passed thrown in the van of the Democrac of Pettis. From our gallant candi ood, clothing and shelter for the coming less, a great and even touching paper. of not only sterling worth as gentleto squander on their pride, passions and ap- "wasted many years in the study of those unhallowed passions and fanatguish the leaders and rank and file of But not only has the share of general but see that in the metaphysics lay the radical party. Philips is beaten from these people, or in some hardly less It was there that he acquired that and every Democratic candidate for a criminal manner been scized by the rapa- habit of patient thinking, and that county office is beaten; not because clous few who have grown, "rich beyond willingness to follow his ideal even for any position within the gift of our though it should lead him to conclu- people; not because a large majority sions utterly at variance with precon- of the people of the county did not ceived and firmly rooted opinions prefer them, infinitely, to the usurpers which would have resulted at last in (for before high heaven and decent tion, and have brought upon him all to which they were fraudulently promoted; but because the iron, depicawho lord it over the people of this State, has outraged every principle of mode of motion, and that thinking is tism, and we are proud of the lionequally so, has, by Dr. Meissner, been nerved democracy of old Pettis that stood up to their chiefs. We envy will, love, the growth of plants and instinct, when he reflects that he holds very American gentleman. the actual anima, which can at will be a secondary matter; but there is a

a gas; but Meissner has obtained the to an overwhelming majority and by fraud and chicanery, enforce the prin- carried it in his head as well as he ciples or dogmas, alike repugnant to could back again to Paris. of a powder, which when at rest is a fraud, in order that he might be en-But after sufficient air is with- throned in power, hence we say that we would greatly prefer to be one of life. The globe containing this pow- or in the language of the text "we had der was suspended from the wall by rather be a dead Lion than a living a fine silk cord, about five feet from | dog. Motions of the Stars. ered, and violently agitated the powier by shaking the globe with great When the powder had become oward the centre, representing, as spectrum of burning hydrogen. The into my hand. I was yet reading it, Dr. Meissner said, the cosmical light. two spectral were brought side by side when a summons came to attend the At the centre toward which the light and due care having been taken to Minister to recive his last instrucmagnify as much as possible any dishad passed was then seen in rapid process of formation an intensely bright crepancy which might exist, it was crushed crystal, the earliest form of organic found that the dark line in the speciment of the control of the con ife, which was soon to become the trum of Sirius was not exactly oppo- lay unheeded, if not forgotten. central sun of this little universe, site the bright line in the spectrum of a golid form, the particles of powder placement that at the observation SIbegan to approach and unite themrius was receding from the earth at a rate of about forty miles per second.

went through the mesozoic era and Pioness (Radical.)

[AFTER THE MANNER OF BERARGER.] Men of Labor, ever faithful, Lift your earnest hearts on high, In the power of truth reliant, Freedom's hope is on the die!

O, how patiently you waited The hap-hazard of a day, While your tyrants-still unsated Stole her brightest gems away! Girt in power, Hour by hour, They have quenched her altar fires; So will ever, Halting never Till ve tame their mad desires. How the vampires of "the nation. Play the Oriental role! In the name of legislation Warp its ends, and mock control! How they bent them to the masses While the masses yet were free! How they grind the 'lower' classes, Filched of faith and liberty! Still in power, &c.

Though your morn were cast in shadov

You had visions far beyond; Glowing noontides, golden evenings, Now your lives are sealed in Bond,-Though 'twas yours to lay the forest, Rend the mountain delve the mine; On your travail, deepest, sorest, Freedom poured a ray divine;

But in power, &c. From this triple-zoned dominion

Reared ye many a glorious State; Each would test the eagle's pinion; Now behold their hapless fate! And the broad untraveled acres, Stretching to the setting sun; -Hence the prey of "Undertakers," Ye must toil as serfs upon! Still in power, &c.

Since this beauteous orb was fashloned By the High Jehovah's hand, Where wrought men, however passion Such a wreck in such land? God of patience! how the nation's Highest temple reeks with sin. Which, aforetime, -ere the sword time Civic virtues centered in! Girt in power, &c,

Ye were "Sovereigns" not ensceptered, Nor in regal crown arrayed, Those the Nemes:s are moulding To a despot hand and head:-Justice statue greets your presence And the flag from dome and mast; What are they without their essence, Freedom? Mockeries of the past While in power, &c. Men of Labor, ever faithful

Lift your earnest hearts on high,

In the power of truth reliant,

Freedom's hope is on the die

All too slavishly you waited, The hap-hazard of to-day; While your tyrants-still un Stole her brightest gems away Girt in power, Quench they still her altar fires

So will ever, Halting never, Till ve check their mad desires

TO BE SHOT AS A SPY. are proud of the gallant fight which | by our government in Spain, to watch they made to strangle radical despo- and report upon the progress of affairs. These men, who passed under appeal alike to the head and heart of self, were from time to time debuted Victory or defeat in the abstract, is | You will ask why they did not comnot well to ignore. The right of the rid? That might have been laid majority to rule is one of the cardinal open to suspicion. But by the system doctrines of the Democratic party, adopted, all dispatches or documents is not simply change of place among bodies, but an actual, tangible sub- litical system. We have ever bowed in writing were dispensed with, and tance; and "change of place" is but in meek submission to the will of the traveler who seemed to meet majority when fairly expressed; but them casaally at the hotel, or in the H. Davy, it will be remembered, the right of a minority, a mere frag-claimed that the life principle was ment of the people, to dictate terms diligence, giving the pass-sign, re-General in command to be examined. ceived their information verbally, and

I instantly telegraphed to my banker to pur- This crystal began to revolve slowly hydrogen, but was slightly shifted to- I had not long crossed the frontier and, as it was the only portion of the ward the red end of the spectrum. It when my troubles began. A party of whole which had at all approached to followed from the amount of the disand no conveyance would venture for fect of attraction was seen, and like When due account is taken of the any money I could offer. So for a atoms rushed toward their sun, until observation, it results that Sirius is all had united themselves to it. And receding from the sun at the rate of security.

agents with whom I was to commu-ognition. One or two stages were no formed that he would be detained as exchange, for my business is urgent, acid gas. As shown by Dr. Meissner er Democratic, American nor manly, to the Academy, during the reading and can never receive the sanction of in a hollow glass globe about two feet State. Men who have a prurient am- he started arranged the name by ters, his parole being readily taken to in diameter, from which the atmos- bition for official place and plunder, which he was to be known-always the effect that he would make no atpheric air had been, as far as possible, exhausted. Owing to the impossiunder such dishonorable circumstanbe was to represent. My name on was less courteous, and I could see bility of completely withdrawing the ces and thus stifle their compunctions he was to represent. My name on was less courteous, and I could see air, its manifestations were to some of consciences (?) but the true man this occasion was to be "Jean Brissot, my story was not received with perextent impeded. It was in the form would scorn to become a party to such agriculturist," the town of my birth feet confidence in its truthfulness. A dence. It was to be in search of a the General, when he heard my earn- of which time, if he failed to make ity, the colors of it are those com- the defeated candidates, than to be younger brother who was supposed est declarations of fraternal affection monly seen in animal and vegetable one of the elect on the Radical ticket, to have ventured in one of the con- and anxiety, and he ordered me off to ate return to France was required rations, and to rest as best I could on most urgently, owing to the death of a hard board for a touch, if I prefera near relative, possessed of much red that to the softer embraces of wealth. My passport set forth the mother earth. By a conversation be-The Scientific American says: "A necessary particulars. I need not tell tween two soldiers, of which I underremarkable paper has lately been sent | you that before starting I carefully | stood a word here and there, I gathto the Royal Society of England by divested myself of everything that ered that messenger had been dis-Mr. Higgins, one of the Fellows. It bore traces of my real name and ad- patched to the headquarters of the announces the application of a new dress. My ciothes were all new, and Carlist chief for instruction as to my and requested the audience to watch and most promising method of in- my linen was conspicuously marked treatment. Three weary days passed, quiry to the determination of the with my adopted designation; not a and I began to feel nervous as to my stars' motions. Hr. Higgins tested scrap of paper or note book of any probable fate, when I was suddenly dergone. At first all was confusion, star Sirius. The spectrum of this star avocation. I was on the point of ney, and in an hour after was seated thoughts. Upon this a certain dignitary, but soon the powder became brill is crossed by a number of dark lines, starting, when a little note from my on a mule, between two mounted soland among others by one known to mother, containing just her blessing diers with drawn sabres, and carried ed," he said; "do you still refuse to

on my journey. While putting on up and in a sharp voice ordered an my traveling coat, that had for days aid to 'bring in the Englishman." I mercantile frauds that were being past hung in my apartment, 1 recol- was surprised to see my fellow-tray. perpetrated on French houses by perlected my mother's parting note, but eler immediately enter the room,when I put my hand in my pocket to Don Carlos designed, however, to nofind it, lo! it was gone. This was al- tice him with some degree of courte together inexplicable. Moreover, it sy, and the Englishman, with a frank, was a source of danger, for was not easy manner, returned his bow. He my colleague in my inquiries. When my own name written upon it, while was then questioned as to his knowl- introduced to him I felt sure I had the contents were directly connected edge of me, but as I had told him the somewhere seen his face before, and a with my journey? Here was I, tray- same story as I had just imparted quiet smile met my look of surprise eling as Jean Brissot, while the note myself, nothing of an incriminating as he held out his hand. He said was addressed to Jules S--. I taxed character was obtained, and I began nothing, however, till we reached his my resolution to discover, if possible, to hope for the best. But alas! my lodings, and then opening a drawer, that I had myself removed it, but hopes were soon dashed rudely to took out the uniform of an officer of was certain that since my interview pieces. As the questioning of the the Spanish Legion. He was the man with the Minister in Paris, 1 had not | Englishman ended, an orderly, booted | to whom I had owed my deliverance seen it. However, it might then in and spurred, and covered with dust, from the Carlists! Like myself, he watched, for surely, as the old gentle- and scanned it closely. My heart in the event of capture. But unlike man had warned me, at no hotel did beat violently, my knees shook under myself, he was able to appeal at once I stop, but some communicative per. me, I felt sick and faint, and-must I to the representative of the English sonage sought to enlighten me on the confess it ?-horribly frightened, for Government, who knew the imporstate of public affairs with the obvi- in that small sheet I recognized my tance of his speedy return to England ous purpose of extracting some opinion of my own thereon. I was so turned towards me, and a grim look ence obtained the release of a friend overwhelmed, however, with anxiety passed over his dark face, and he saw of Don Carlos then in the hands of for the fate of my lost brother, and so eager to discover that beloved creature of imagination, that I had no time for political controversy. So I seemed to be written in his look, personage and getting me off with avoided the snare thus daily set before though for a few moments he said himself. me, meeting in my course two of the nicate, and by the apparently accidental character of the interview, escaped detection, or, as I supposed, suspicion. I reached Madrid, executed one or two official commissions there, and lett again, intending after a slight detour, to return once more to Paris. On the third day after quitting the capital, provided with a pass from protect me in my search while among the royal forces, I entered the diliface once more turned homeward .-

also, but were evidently Spaniards, and sat wrapped up in their large cloaks in perfect silence, as though desiring neither conversation nor rec-

It was in the year 1884, while the men, they are USURPERS in the mean- abella was raging in Spain, that I was a loud command to the driver to stop. not the feelings of any successful rad- upon various pretexts, never staying conference was held, apparently about kept in communication with Paris had no doubt as to what had been the are but motion. Dr. Meissner's God fice of those principles of honor which by means of travellers, who, like mywere ordered to re-enter the coach; to meet them, as though accidentally. two soldiers sat with us; others took right, which I had already heard was diligence, in company with two once taken to the headquarters of the have been guilty, I imagine, of some and explication of his memoir, it was the truly patriotic citizens of any gage as possible, and each one before of the soldiers keeping guard, while mule and horses being pressed into second day, I saw by the numerous march or in camp, that we were approaching the headquarters of the myriads of scntillating comets the earth's orbital motion at the time of week, till the guerrillas were disperstide kept rising and falling two or three times an hour, from low water to extreme now this sun revolved with ever insulation and falling two or three times an hour, from low water to extreme now this sun revolved with ever insulation and falling two or three times an hour, from low water to extreme now the sun revolved with ever insulation and falling two or three times an hour, from low water to extreme now the sun revolved with ever insulation and falling two or three times an hour, from low water to extreme now the sun revolved with ever insulation and falling two or three times an hour, from low water to extreme now the sun revolved with ever insulation and falling two or three times and their exploits, I was kept a close prisoner at the little frontier town of F. At the same place was staying an armies. On the following day I was the centrification of the same place, but we agriculturist, etc., seeking his broth-agriculturist, etc., s the ball in whirling threw off rings af- od of examining Sirius, which is the ter ring of matter, and the rings hearest of the fixed stars, should be taken into the presence of the great taken into taken into the great taken into the gre breaking formed planets, revolving carried into the examination of other into my professed object in visiting revolutionary chief. He sat at one rythmically around the central sun. and remoter ones, conclusions would Spain, and gave me much good advice end of a large and nearly empty room, as to the avoidance of the many dansthmically around the central sun. and remoter ones, extentific value. as to the avoidance of the many dan-selecting the third planet from the bearrived at of great scientific value. as to the avoidance of the many dan-writing scarcely looking up as I enministure sun, which represented the motion to a great exministure sun, which represented the mot ful magnifying glass, and requested moving toward the constellation Her- said to be watched—efforts would be examine me, and I gave him my stohim to examine this earth. It was cules; and as the observations are its azoic age. Not a trace of life could made on the earth, the observatory as conversation on our way again and escaped further ry as substantially as I could never indicate the made on the earth, the observatory as its azoic age. Not a trace of life could be seen on the barren rocks, none in the lonely seas breaking unimpeded on the desolate shores. The palaezoon the desolate shores. The palaezoon the desolate shores. The palaezoon and the gyr could be seen on the desolate shores. The palaezoon and the gyr could be seen on the desolate shores. The palaezoon and the gyr could be seen on the desolate shores. The palaezoon and the gyr could be ic age came on, and the eye could gold and the price of wheat is tumbling week, I accepted the offer of a person, of questions, the chief, writing away "BEAST" BUTLER is re-elected to tation, and so the astonished president times for the laboring man. - WYANDOT who had hired a conveyance for him all the while, apparently inattentive Five years afterward I was sent milk, if well wattered, brings ten cease per self, to proceed another stage or two to the proceedings, suddenly looked over to London to communicate with quart.

my haste have been dropped, and I entered the room, and placed in the had been sent on a secret mission by tried to argue myself into a sense of hands of the chief a small packet .- his government, and after executing He opened it deliberately, and glanc- it at Madrid, adopted the character he

But there was no doubt that I was ing at the contents, took up a paper had acted so perfectly as a protection mother's parting letter ! Don Carlos with information, and by his influthe fright which confessed to my the Royalists, whilst not torgetful of knowledge of the fatal evidence his promise, he had used this circumagainst me. "To be shot as a spy," stance as a means of conciliating that nothing. Remember that I had no better chance, even if I so far forgot my duty to my Government and country, as to confess my true character and errand. The French Minister at Madrid would not have known me, and had references been made to There had already reached us many indica-Paris, which was not possible, it was quite certain that, for reasons of policy, my business would have been disavowed. All this occurred to me the commanding general that would as the Don sat eyeing me with the letter in his hand. "You know this?" he said, holding out the tiny sheet of brilliant and spirited organ of Radicalism in gence at the little town of S-my paper. I confessed frankly it was this city, washed its hands of Read. It mine; a lie would not have availed says, in the course of an able and manly rethe coach. One was an English offi. for falehood. "Your business in Spain? had the appearance of military officers this time my courage had come back.

There were three other passengers in any thing, and I felt too near death view of the subject: "To set aside, in six thousand saparate cer of the Spanish Legion, summoned | tell it !" he added sternly. But I was nstances, without examination of any one home suddenly, and endeavoring to silent. "You are a spy," he went on, paper, the good and bad altogether, to disleave Spain by this, route. The others "or why this concralment?" But by franchise men who were legally made citizens, because it is believed that others gain-"I have had business, secret business," ed their certificates by false swearing, to do I said, "but I cannot reveal it. My this is to strike at the very foundation of all companion here knows that I was law. The remedy is werse than the disease. journeying peaceably enough on the It would be better for the Republican party high road, in a public conveyance, to lose an election by the issue of fraudulent without attempt at concealment, when certificates, than to gain it by suppressing sat a moment in thought, then, with | We cannot afford to make the law a par-Night came on, but we were to travel "Take him away," turned to his writisan instrument and Judge Read's opinion through the night, so it caused no interruption in our journey. It was To my great satisfaction, the English- The Republican journals which applaud it pitch dark, and I feared the upsetting men, with whom I could converse cannot have considered the matter carefully. of the crazy old diligence, rather than slightly in his own tongue, was placed The Evening Telegraph believes that, when any other catastrophe, when, just as with me under guard. We conversed "the crisis comes," Judge Read will be supwe were crossing a bridge, the coach together as to our condition and pros- ported by the Legislature, and "trusts" that pects, and he pressed me closely to a majority of his colleagues will agree with the discovery of the principle of life, est sense of that term) who will stulest sense of that term) who will stulmanner impressed me favorably, and Judge Read stands in danger of the whole travelers coming from France by that retirement.

route-and your description had been forwarded at once to headquarters, to-visit, and where you would certainly have been captured." Then he young men, of whose fate, I think, one punishment. However," he ad-tercede with the French Minister in your behalf." I accepted his friendly Minister my real name, and that my ing its precise nature. So he departed on his word of honor, pledging him-

the very last of the Englishmen's pa-much pleasant conversation as they taken out soon after daylight, and once more stood in the presence of "The Englishman has not return-had your loving words inflicted on quick pace conducted to where my

Don Carlas.

We traveled in a couple of days, one reveal your business?"

men in uniform, bearing lanterns, the he seemed to be in better favor than bar, and that his opinion will be pronounclong received my appointment to the door was opened, and we were one myself, I went so far as to avow a ed contrary to the fundamental principles of position I have since held, and was and all peremptorily ordered to alight. secret government mission, though law. We regret that the mistake has been In an instant a second party of sol- carefully concealing particulars. He made, but we cannot be a party to it. The diers led off the two Spaniards, leaving was summoned to the presence of Don Republican party is not to be responsible for The generally received doctrine of Justice and hir dealing. We are the correlation of forces by which it are proud of our defeated candidates; we the correlation of forces by which it are proud of the course of the day. On this great error, by which it was intended it with a guard over us on the bridge. his return he told me he had discoverd should profit."

In less than ten minutes we heard the that there existed a strong suspicion This independent attitude of a powerful report of musketry, and shortly af- unfavorable to myself. "Here," said party organ shows that the defence of assumed names, moved to and fro terwards the party rejoined us, and a he, "you are traveling under a false Read's outrage cannot be made a party quesname-your mother's letter was ab- tion in the Legislature. His removal by structed by an agent of the Carlists, impeachment will, therefore, probably folwho was employed to keep an eye on low, unless he anticipates it by a ucluntary

A "Union" Triumph.

District, always largely Republican.

to fill a uscancy in the Portage Senatorial

The specimen brick of the se called, Ux-10N party, nominated as one peculiarly repded, "I have offered to go on parole District, bears the name of Wm. Stedman, with great courtesy, and, whilst in- to Madrid, partlo to effect my own and is the same sweet-scented, Union-loving William named in the extract from the Senbut also, if you will allow me, to in- ate Journal of this State, page 83 of the see-

"TUESDAY, FEB. 3, 1847. "Prayer by Rev. Mr. Gurley.

"Mr. Brown presented the petition of WM. STEDMAN and sixteen legal voters, and Rachel Savage and twenty seven nonvoters of Stark and Portage countles, DRAWAL OF OHIO FROM THEUNION Wm. Stedman, on the day of the meeting anxiety as day by day passed, and role drew to its close. My guards had the Union party, in that very Senate in which his predecessor, sMr. Brown, present-sat through the long hours, while I ed the petition of Stedman and Rachal San bility of my execution. They did weak-minded men, to destroy the Union bebut here and there a few words caught | just as Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and my car and added to my fears. I was Henry Clay did .- Onto Statesman, Josh Billings on Milk. I want to say something. I want to say something in reference to nilk az a fertilizer.

Knowing that, once I began, I sho'd betray the whole system, of which I iz sweet milk, sour milk, skim milk, butter was but one member. I was bound to milk, cow milk, and the milk uv human "Shoot him in an hour!" said the that hazn't the most water in it. Butter milk chief; and I was ordered to withdraw. izzent the best for butter. Expostulation would have been

Milk iz spontaneous, and haz done more vain, and so I made no remonstrance. to encourage the growth of human folks than How I counted those sixty minutes any other likwid.

Milk iz Incteal; it iz likewise aquatic, while inder the patronage of milk venders. Cokernut milk haz never been solved.

Milk and bread is a pleasant mixtur had hardly reached it, when a mes-Sometimes, if milk iz aloud to stand too ong, a scum rises to the surface, which is was returned to the guard-house,

There I found the Englishman just duzzent foller that the milk is nasty, This

Kreme iz the warent of butter, and butter

I forgot to state, in conclusion, that cow

THE DEMOCRAT OFFICE.

Having lately received a new supply of JOB MAT ERIAL, is now furnished in a style equal to any

TWO POWER PRESSES

And a full assortment of the latest styles of Type

CARDS, PAPER, ENVELOPES, &c.,

Always kept on hand.

the police concerning some extensive

(From the Philadelphia Age)

Read's Outrage.

We said, yesterday, that the attempt to sustain Read by partisan appeals to the value of his service to his party, would fail .-

tions of the shame and disgust inspired among those who were the gainers by his cial security and order.

with the usual facilities for doing work of every 100,000 description in the best of style, and as reasonable as can be done in any first-class city office.

ountry office in Obio, having sons in England. After an interview with the chief of detective force, I was promised the assistance of a clever officer, who spoke French well, as HEAME outrage-if a party ever can really gain by such assaults on the very foundations of so-Yesterday the Monning Post, the most